

What is Minimal Intervention Winemaking?

← Additive Enology	Minimal Intervention by 2B	Zero Intervention →
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Maximum use of additives from synthetic media or origin 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Less additives but sustainable made, pure and fully organic 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + No use of adds at all
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - High process costs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Lower process costs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + No additional costs
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Low single costs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Process control 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - High risk
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +/- Wines of uniformity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Individual but varietal & clean wines 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +/- Wines with difficult & funky flavour profiles
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +/- Low price market
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Wines with short life cycle, fast ageing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Excellent longevity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mixed longevity
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Non-sustainable production 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Better terroir expression 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Potential defects
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Legally under pressure and surveillance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Fully sustainable production + High consistency 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Sustainable production - Low consistency